

A Message from the President

Spring is a time to learn from the past and reflect on the future. At Freedom Bank, we are very fortunate to have a great group of employees who offer the best in friendly and personal services to our customers all over the area. In addition, they are local and very much involved in various community activities. Unlike the bigger "mega-banks", we know that being a vital part of the local community is something we do as a choice, not because we have to.

In this issue, we feature some of the various community involvements we support. In our opinion, the United Way of Harrison, Randolph and Upshur Counties are especially important in providing services to many needy agencies throughout the markets we serve. And the dollars get to the source instead of being eaten up in costly administrative fees. In addition, the YMCA of Randolph County is providing a needed family resource for all aspect of the county, including children and senior citizens.

In Barbour County, we were recognized in January as the "Corporate Citizen of the Year" for the third time in the past five years. This award is a direct reflection on the hard work and community involvement of our employees. Our employees are very actively involved in the American Cancer Society's "Relay for Life". Our people raise money through various events throughout the year. In addition, many of our employees show up the night of the walk and spend many hours walking to raise money and more importantly, awareness of the need to help find a cure for cancer.

Are we proud? Of course! Are we finished? Of course not. What we've learned from the past only inspires us to do more in the future.

Freedom Bank's focus and philosophy is to maintain a strong community foundation in its markets and to become the preeminent community bank in North Central West Virginia. The bank is aware of the necessity to support the people in its service areas, including civic and youth organizations.

Freedom Bank considers any investment in its youth to be very valuable, as they will be our future leaders. These photos reflect the bank's contributions to Randolph County YMCA and the United Way of Harrison, Randolph and Upshur Counties.

The United Way supports many organizations within its county, and at times, adjacent counties.
